

OCR Computer Science A Level

1.5.1 Computing related legislation

Flashcards

What is meant by personal data?

What is meant by personal data?

Any data which can be used to identify a living person or which can be used in combination with other data to identify a living person

Which act concerns the malicious use of computers?

Which act concerns the malicious use of computers?

The computer misuse act 1990

Which act protects people's property online?

Which act protects people's property online?

The copyright, designs and patents act
1988

Which act covers the use of personal data?

Which act covers the use of personal data?

The Data Protection Act 1998

Name two of the three primary offences
under the computer misuse act 1990

Name two of the three primary offences under the computer misuse act 1990

Two from:

1. Unauthorised access to computer materials.
2. Unauthorised access with intent to commit further offences.
3. Unauthorised modification of computer material.

Which act covers investigation and surveillance by public bodies?

Which act covers investigation and surveillance by public bodies?

The regulation of investigatory powers act 2000

Which act prevents computer programs from being copied?

Which act prevents computer programs from being copied?

The copyright, designs and patents act
1988

What name is given to an individual who can be identified by personal data?

What name is given to an individual who can be identified by personal data?

Data subject

